

Organ Stops
Press Gallery
 Stills from Film by Rec.Today

1) The Opera Philadelphia Chorus performs classic and new works in three Philadelphia churches with historic pipe organs in Organ Stops, a free-to-watch program premiering July 16 on the Opera Philadelphia Channel.

2) Chorus Master Elizabeth Braden conducts the Opera Philadelphia Chorus in Organ Stops, a free-to-watch program premiering July 16 on the Opera Philadelphia Channel.

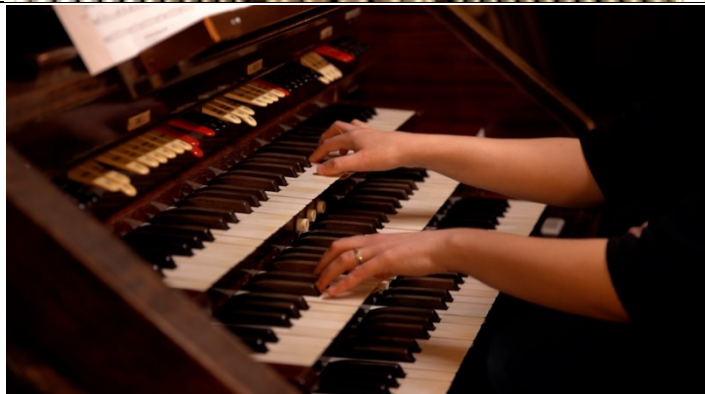

3) The Opera Philadelphia Chorus performs classic and new works in three Philadelphia churches with historic pipe organs in Organ Stops, a free-to-watch program premiering July 16 on the Opera Philadelphia Channel.

4) Cobbs Creek's Wharton-Wesley United Methodist Church, one of the churches featured in Organ Stops, against the Philadelphia skyline.

5) Organ Stops, a free-to-watch program premiering July 16 on the Opera Philadelphia Channel, celebrates some of Philadelphia's historic pipe organs and features the Opera Philadelphia Chorus.

6) Organ Stops, a free-to-watch program premiering July 16 on the Opera Philadelphia Channel, celebrates some of Philadelphia's historic pipe organs and features the Opera Philadelphia Chorus.